The National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW), Incorporated is a 33 year old advocacy organization that advocates on behalf of women of color through national and local actions and strategic alliances that promote the NCBW agenda on leadership development and gender equity in the areas of health, education and economic empowerment. The organization has chartered over 60 chapters in 25 states, and has a current membership of approximately 7500 women.

NCBW Membership is through sponsorship of active members of the organization, and requires commitment of an individual's time and financial resources to the organization. Your interest in the NCBW Richmond Metropolitan Chapter (RMAC) is the beginning of your dedication and volunteer commitment to continue our chapter's mission to advocate on behalf of women of color and teen girls. The NCBW RMAC Chapter's proposed platform will focus on Anti-poverty, Mental Health and Domestic Violence. The time is now to focus on the population that continues to be marginalized and ostracized. The NCBW RMAC will be an advocate and lobbyist for this population to ensure a brighter future for all stakeholders impacted. Your membership and participation in the NCBW RMAC Chapter will assist in making the lives of many women and children who live in poverty, suffer with mental illness and who are victims of domestic violence, a life worth living and saving for a brighter future.

For membership consideration, please forward your completed application along with your $300 membership fee to the NCBW RMAC, c/o Joyce Powell, P.O. Box 6452, Richmond, VA 23230. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the NCBW RMA Chapter. For additional information, please feel free to contact Mrs. Joyce Powell, 3rd VP of Membership.
